Dedicated to Engineering Excellence

The National Association of Hotel & Lodging Engineers welcomes you!

With your preferred service member status your company will be recognized as part of a trade organization that creates regional and national exposure for your products & services to Hospitality Engineers, General Managers, Corporate Engineers Directors, and Corporate Renovation Planners, who make the decisions as to how & where capital will be spent.

As part of your initial membership your company will be listed on NAHLE's website and preferred Members list. In addition you will receive one complementary quarter page add in an upcoming issue of Lodging Engineer.

To further enhance your exposure to our hospitality engineer members NAHLE offers more aggressive advertising packages and strategic e-mails that will contribute to your company's ever increasing success for your future consideration. We look forward to our alliance with your business and it's needs.

Thank You
